Resolutions Adopted.

WHEREAS, Many of our young preachers realize that our present methods are not producing the best results, and many of our preachers who have completed the course of study feel that further study is desirable, therefore.

RESOLVED, That R. D. Smart, W. E. Boggs and G. C. Jones be appointed by this Conference to meet like committees from the Arkansas and White River Conferences at Little Rock on the second Wednesday in January, 1894, to arrange for a Summer School for the benefit of such of our preachers as may be able to attend.

J. R. MOORE,

J. R. CASON.

Memorial to the General Conference.

We, the members of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at Hot Springs, would respectfully memorialize your Honorable Body, and ask that the Episcopal oversight be made to conform to the line of division separating the Little Rock and White River Conferences as it is set forth in our Book of Discipline, giving to us territory now occupied by the White River Conference, in contravention of that Division.

Resolutions of thanks to citizens of Hot Springs for hospitality, to the Hot Springs, St. Louis Southwestern, and Iron Mountain Railways for reduced rates, to Mr. Robert Proctor for free baths, of regret at the death of Bro. R. S. Thompson, a lay delegate to the conference, and of sympathy for Bro. R. W. McKay upon the serious illness of his wife.

Reports.

1. Hendrix College. We learn through the Board of Trustees that the year ending June 21, 1893, has been in every way except financially and enrollment, the most pleasant and prosperous in its history. The work of the President and Faculty have met the hearty approval of the Board of Trustees. The enrollment was 154, just 12 less than the previous year, yet representing more counties, Conferences and states than heretofore.

2. Health of both faculty and students has been exceptionally good, not a single case of serious sickness having originated at Conway.

3. The spiritual state of the students has been unusually strong. Twenty were converted during revivals, only 9 remained at the close of the year without religion.

4. The library has been increased by fully 200 volumes.

5. The buildings are in good repair, and the campus much improved.

6. The income is not satisfactory, the receipts fell some $2,000 short of expenses. This College is doing good work on very little money. We recommend therefore, that $650, the same as last year, be assessed upon this Conference as ministerial aid for Hendrix College, and that this amount be apportioned as follows: Hot Springs District $50, and the remaining six Districts $100 each, and that this fund be placed in the Presiding Elders' hands for collection. We also recommend that D. B. Coulter be re-elected by this Conference as a member of the Board of Trustees, and that Rev. T. H. Ware be appointed Agent.

GALLOWAY COLLEGE.

There is no interest more meritorious in its claims upon the attention of the Church than the Christian education of our girls. That the three Conferences of Arkansas have been sufficiently stirred upon this the greatest of educational questions, as to express their interest in the erection of Galloway Female College is a gratifying truth of no small import. The sustaining and carrying forward this great enterprise should command the best thought and earnest support of the patronizing Conferences. We were delighted to receive the information of prosperity contained in the report of the President, Dr. Jno. H. Dye.

The highest enrollment since our last report is 321. The faculty has been strengthened, a conservatory of Music added and other valuable improvements made. We are fully assured that no female college either east or west of the Mississippi offers superior advantages in the education of our girls.

A detailed statement was submitted of subscriptions made to the College. The most of these were made while Bro. Jeffett was Financial Agent, and but a small per cent. has been paid. The condition of the college renders the payment of these subscriptions at as early day as possible, imperative. A small amount has been subscribed to meet expense of repairing damages of cyclone disaster, and it seems but right that the Church shall at once rally to raise the remainder. His payment on the indebtedness of the College and additional improvements on buildings and grounds make a splendid showing and highly commendable to the President.

Resolved, 1. We reaffirm our former expression of loyalty and pledge for the future increased effort and support.

2. Dr. John H. Dye is cordially invited to come among us at any time and solicit such financial aid as the interest of his school may require.

3. We recommend the election of John M. McCain trustee, in place of R. S. Thompson, deceased.

ARKADELPHIA METHODIST COLLEGE.

We are very much gratified to learn that this institution from the very beginning up to the present time has done excellent work. The college building is completed and fully equipped with all modern improvements for college work. In size convenience, elegance, of finish and beauty of situation it compares favorably with any college building in the State. The grounds are enclosed, graded and very much improved.

The financial condition is as follows: Value of buildings and grounds $38,750; furniture, $4,000; philosophical, chemical and scientific apparatus, $2,000; fixtures, $2,000; 2 blocks of ground apart from College, $1,000; unpaid subscription, $4,000. Total, $51,750.

Indebtedness, 1st mortgage to Arkansas Building and Loan Association, $11,000; 2nd to builder, $3,000; borrowed money, $3,300; balance on grounds, $1,500; advanced by G. C. Jones, for equipment, $7,000. Total $25,800.

We recommend that A. O. Evans, J. R. Moore, R. H. Fatherston, R. W. Hule, and J. W. Dale. be elected to succeed themselves on the Board of Trustees, and that W. P. Ross be elected to fill vacancy caused by resignation, of C. H. Cargile, his term to expire June 1895.

We highly recommend this College in every way worthy of increased patronage and support. It is a child of this Conference and if you desire that your son or daughter have the advantages of a Co-Educational College, we know of no better place than the Arkadelphia Methodist College.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the attention of our preachers be invited to the clause in the Discipline providing for the preaching upon the subject of Christian education at least once a year to all their congregations, and that they present the claims of our Church schools within the State.

2. That we deprecate and discourage the sending of our sons and daughters out of the State to be educated, when we have equal if not better facilities within it, and we are bound by the most solemn pledges to foster and support our Conference schools, all of which need our patronage.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

We are very grateful to learn that this great Institution continues to prosper. Last year the enrollment was 710 students in the various departments, and the year closing last June was a very prosperous one. We urge our people to patronize this Institution.

LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE TRAINING SCHOOL.

We learn from the report of the Board of Trustees that this school is now in the midst of the most successful term in its history. The school is in charge of Prof. J. D. Clary with two assistants in the Literary Department and a Music Teacher. The primary department has been dropped, and no pupil is allowed to enter who is not able to read in the Fourth Reader. Eighty-one pupils are enrolled, thirty of whom are boarders. This school is doing genuine work for developing character and building up true scholarship by teaching a few branches thoroughly. We highly commend the school.

Colored Schools.

LANE INSTITUTE.

We learn from Bishop Lane that this school is suffering greatly for want of a main building. The contract has been let and the foundation laid. The building is to cost $15,000.

PAINÉ INSTITUTE.

We have received no report from this school. We recommend that $150 be assessed on this Conference to be divided equally between Paine Institute and Haygood Seminary, and this amount apportioned to the several Districts as follows: Hot Springs District $11, and the other six Districts $23.25 each; to be collected by the Presiding Elders.

ABSTRACT.

The continued prosperity of our Publishing House is a source of gratification and joy. While financial depression has been almost everywhere present, we rejoice to know that enough has been realized above expenses to enable the house to set apart 17,500 for the benefit of our Conference claimants. This is but a moiety compared with what as a church, we should enable them to do. We sometimes think that many of our preachers do not show the interest they should. They could materially supplement their meager salaries by introducing among their members the publications of our House, for it is worthy of observation that our people support the institutions of the Church in proportion as they know and love our polity and doctrines.

We rejoice in the continued prosperity and growing importance of THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. It is our connectional organ, and royally does it fulfill its mission. No family accustomed to its visits and who tries to keep abreast would be without it for many times its cost. Every true Methodist should be thankful for ownership in it.

We are glad to see in its Editor a clear cut positiveness, standing for the right, and sending to our homes a clean Christian paper that cannot but be a benediction, filled as it is with matter to meet chaste and intelligent expectation. Considering its size it is a marvel of cheapness, and the Methodist who does not have it is bereft. It is eminently calculated to broaden and strengthen Methodist faith. But it is not circulated as it should be. The editor has said, "ten thousand additional subscriptions would enable the Book Committee to appropriate 25,000. instead of 17,500. There are more than 5,000 members in the traveling connection. Could not these average two additional subscribers, both for the increase of the fund and for the wonderful uplift that would accrue to our Methodism?" We pray God the preachers of this Conference may measure up to the fulness of their obligation in this matter.

THE ARKANSAS METHODIST.

THE ARKANSAS METHODIST is the organ of our Conference. That it is an agency for good none will deny. It comes to our homes weekly, a clean, chaste, clear dispenser of our holy Christianity, as the Methodist church understands and teaches it. Beyond all cavil it is the faithful ally of every Methodist preacher who scatters it over his work. It preaches for him in his absence. It arouses a lethargic membership to the oft forgotten fact that those who preach the gospel should live of the gospel; and so awakens the conscience to the fact that God's ambassadors are not beggars, but that the dispensation of the gospel becomes to them a debt, God-sanctioned, both of right and duty. It comes weekly, laden with "notes from the field," telling how seed sown in tears and sorrow, and deprivation it may be, has grown to a ripening harvest, and is being garnered for our common Lord. It tells of our departed loved ones, how, having fallen on sleep, they fell enwrapped in light and hope and immortality; and brings to our saddened, lonely, desolate hearthstones words of Christian hope, love and cheer, as it tells us of the home beside the "crystal sea" where those who loved may meet again. All editors have individual responsibilities to their constituencies that cannot be delegated or relegated to any one without detriment to themselves and to those whose interests they propose to subserve, and in an emphasized sense is this so with editors of connectional organs, so it is with the editor of THE ARKANSAS METHODIST; and while some may differ with him as to what should, or should not appear in the paper, it must pass the scrutiny of his conscientious judgment, since he alone is responsible to his constituency. Whatever may have been the differences of opinion in this respect, we nevertheless recognize in him an earnest, honest exponent of the right, as he understands it, and a fearless defender of Methodism, and faithful in his denunciations of worldliness in the church. We recommend the appointment of J. R. Moore, A. Hunter and J. H. Riggin as a Publishing Committee of THE ARKANSAS METHODIST.

THE QUARTERLY REVIEW,

Edited by W. P. Harrison, D. D., fills a want that no other of our church papers can. Strong, forceful and clear cut, both in its "Editor's table" and contents beside, it shows the conduct of a master mind, guarding our Methodism, ready to measure lances with any foe. We regret very much to say our Church does not properly appreciate it, else it would not continue to be published at a loss of $3,000 per annum. When we become a reading people as we ought, THE REVIEW will become self-sustaining; yea, more, a source of revenue.

Our SUNDAY-SCHOOL LITERATURE is as bright and charming as ever, and we are persuaded, meets the demands of the times; and we are glad to record carries greetings and gladness to the thousands of our Sunday-schools, and is a source of revenue.

We note with pleasure the enlargement and improvement of the METHODIST REVIEW OF MISSIONS, and earnestly commend it to the enlarged patronage of the Church.

R. D. SMART, Chairman.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board of Church Extension beg leave to submit the following:

Applications for aid from seven churches have been before us and we distributed among them as follows: Caney Church, Montgomery Co., $75; Paran Church, Saline Co., $65; Johnson's Chapel, Prairie Co., $40; Harmony Church, Columbia Co., 75.; Tillar Church, Drew Co., 50.; Sherrill Church, Jefferson Co., 96.91; Buckner Church, Columbia Cy., 100.

Amount raised on assessments this year is a little less than the amount last year, and fewer applications this year than any year since we have been your Board.

We distributed some 15. worth of Church Extension Literature throughout our Conference from which we look for a harvest in time to come.

In order that the 16-page pamphlet which is to take the place of our Church Extension Bulletin we have appropriated $15 to pay postage, that it may come free of cost to the ministers and official members of the church. We desire your co-operation in whatever plan we may fall upon to secure the P. O. address of ministers and laymen.

We had before us a communication from Mrs. Nathan Scarritt, Secretary of our Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society, and on nomination of Miss Lizzie Stinson, our Conf. Cor. Sec., we elected the following District Secretaries: Little Rock District, Mrs. S. N. Marshall, Little Rock; Pine Bluff District, Mrs. Freeman, DeWitt; Monticello District, Mrs. J. W. Simpson, Berea; Camden District, Mrs. C. D. McSwain, El Dorado; Washington District, Mrs. Custer, Center Point; Arkadelphia District, Mrs. Rudolph, Arkadelphia; Hot Springs District, Mrs. Halton, Hot Springs. Our pastors are urged to encourage and assist the women in this good work.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. GODDEN, President.

A. O. EVANS, Secretary.

COLPORTAGE.

Your Board of Colportage would respectfully report very satisfactory progress in the circulation of our books through our General Colporters, Bennett & Thornburgh. This report shows a steady and gratifying increase in the sale of our books and periodicals. We would urge our people to order through our authorized Colporters, and thus enable them to place agents in the field that our own publications may have more general circulation. Their profits are quite small, and they should have large patronage to make reasonable profit on the business. We recommend that they be continued as General Colporters, and that the business be conducted as heretofore.

SAMUEL N. BURNS, President.

J. C. RHODES, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

Your Committee, to whom was referred all matters pertaining to the Epworth League movement, in the bounds of this Conference, have done what they could to gather all the statistics of Leagues organized up to this time, and have endeavored to put it in such form that all may see how slow we have been in taking up this very helpful work, and, it seems to us, that after the lapse of nearly three years from the time that the order was made for its organization and the Committee ordered by the General Conference had made their report, giving to the Church at large the Constitution and By-Laws, that we have been far too negligent and careless in regard to this helpful and help-giving arm of the Church; we, therefore, beg leave to make some statements, and offer, as we think, some suitable resolutions.

In the first place we will state that the Epworth League is as much an institution of the Church as anything of which we boast in all of our glorious past, and we are under an obligation to organize, build up and perpetuate the same in all of our Churches as much so as we are any of the familiar enterprises, now so well known to us. This League has been instituted to meet a felt want throughout the Church to develop and thoroughly instruct our young people in piety and sound Methodism. Other Churches have similar institutions, for the same purpose, after their own ideas, and do not object at all to taking our young people into them, and into them they will go if something of our own is not at hand for them. The Epworth League is distinctly our institution, where our children will be taught nothing but the way to be a consistent working Christian and a well-posted and loyal Methodist. In some places we are told that other institutions have such a hold upon our people that it is impossible to organize a League. This, to say the least, is, to our mind, a deplorable state of affairs, and shows at once, all the more clearly, our great need of the League and its speedy organization everywhere there is a Methodist congregation of sufficient strength to have a Sunday-school. We do not recommend meddling with the affairs of any one else, but simply to attend to our business, and to attend to that strictly. And it is to be hoped that our people will be led to see this their duty and respond to it promptly, and that our preachers will use all diligence to instruct the people of the Church in regard to their duty on this subject. We should give what we conceive to be the best moral ideas to our young people, and if Methodism has proved a blessing to us we should make haste to impart it to them. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, 1, by the preachers and members of the Little Rock Conference now assembled, that the General Conference did wisely in ordering the institution of the Epworth League.

RESOLVED, 2. That we will endeavor to have organized in all of our Churches a society of the Epworth League.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

DEAR BRETHREN:—

Your Board has endeavored from the meager reports to ascertain the present state of the Sunday-school work, throughout the bounds of the Conference. We are gratified to report that during the past Conference year the general movement has been forward, and, in some charges, we note a marked advancement along this line. We believe that that perfection in the Sunday-school work which the Church so much desires, can be reached only through the agency of consecrated men and women whose hearts are full of love to God and a burning desire for the conversion of souls. That only such as are spiritually qualified to teach and lead the children into the light of the gospel should be teachers in the Sunday-schools. The Bible should be the book of our Sunday-schools, and while we heartily endorse the use of our Sunday-school Quarterlies and Lesson papers, we do most earnestly protest against their use to the exclusion of the Bible. To the end that the Bible may be placed in the hands of every member of our Sunday-schools, we recommend that the third Sunday in April be set apart as Bible day. With reference to our Sunday-school Conference, we are glad to report that, in some instances, the suggestion of your Board has been put into practice with good results, and we here reiterate and emphasize the importance of holding these Conferences at a time separate from the District Conferences. We have had before us Hinemon's system of Sunday-school Records, and find it possesses superior merits, and we give it an unqualified endorsement and recommend its use in all our Sunday-schools. It is the judgment of your Board that the memorial of the committee from the Missouri Methodist Assembly to the General Conference for the creation of a Parent Sunday-school Board is a step in the right direction and we give the same our hearty approval. The amount received by our treasurer, during the past year, $123.11. The amount disbursed, during the same time, $100.75. In submitting this report we do so without any formal resolutions; but, believing the Sunday-school to be a fundamental principle of Methodism, and one of the great agencies for the conversion of the world, we call upon every Methodist to bring into activity every energy of his being for the promotion of this cause, so vital to our Church interest.

W. A. STEEL, President.

C. V. MURRY, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

After an unusually strong preamble and argument, the report concludes as follows:

The enemies of temperance are always on the alert and ready to vote for license, while many of its friends grow weary or careless, and need to be stimulated continually. "Eternal vigilance" is demanded on the part of every lover of his race against this evil.

We believe if the Christian people of Arkansas will only use their influence to secure the benefits of the laws already on our statutes, known as the "Three-mile law," and petitioning the next Legislature to repeal the "native wine" clause, that this great curse of our race may be banished from our State. Therefore,

RESOLVED, 1. That we will continue as heretofore to preach to our people on the importance of total abstinence from the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage.

2. That we will encourage our people, wherever it is practicable, to petition for its removal, under the "three-mile law," from every school house and Church in our bounds.

3. That we will encourage our people to vote in every general election "against license."

4. That we will encourage and aid our people in petitioning the next Legislature to repeal the "native wine" clause, and to disconnect the vote "for license" or "against license" from the general election, and to be held at a different time.

5. That we will co-operate with the State Temperance Alliance and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in promoting the cause of temperance, as far as practicable.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Committee are much gratified at the neat and business-like manner in which the Journals are kept. We find much to commend and but little to criticize. We note the following:

CAMDEN DISTRICT.—Journal not signed by the President. No roll call shown, nor does it appear who were present. Reports of Committees not recorded. This is a serious omission. The Journal does not show the Conference or the Denomination to which it belongs.

WASHINGTON DISTRICT.—A neat, well-kept and well-written record. We make no criticism.

MONTICELLO DISTRICT.—The record of roll call and opening exercises are in one sentence, and generally there is too much crowding. No space between items of business. There is a partial roll which seems to have been left abruptly unfinished. The entry of the names of those present does not show to what charges they belong. The marginal notes are drawn out too far to indicate directly the items of business.

The record is neat, and, with a little care in minor matters, the Secretary of this Conference will make one of the best Secretaries in the Annual Conference.

HOT SPRINGS DISTRICT.—The opening minutes say, "The roll was called and the absentees designated." Those present should be designated.

PINE BLUFF DISTRICT.—No roll. Minutes do not show to what Annual Conference nor to what Church the District Conference belongs. There are no marginal reference notes. One minute says "J. W. B—— was reported present," but does not indicate whether he was a preacher, layman or visitor.

ARKADELPHIA DISTRICT.—Record does not show Annual Conference or Church to which the District Conference belongs. No roll. Entries too brief, and marginal notes not full.

In one regard that was the most remarkable Conference we ever heard of. The members must have fasted and refrained from sleep for three days and nights, as the record shows that they were in session from Thursday morning until Saturday night without adjournment, rest or recess.

Bible Cause.

The publication and distribution of the written Word of God is a work the value of which cannot be estimated. It is basic to all spiritual thought, endeavor and enterprise. But, alas! how few regard it as they should. The Bible in the hands of all the people, and in convenient form for reading, to take the place of much of the chaffy literature of the present day, would give tone to piety, and be a tower of strength in the spiritual forces of coming generations.

The crowning excellency of Mr. Wesley's preaching was that it was the embodiment of God's Word, not recast or molded again, but the genuine coin as it came from the mint of Divine Inspiration; and the crowning glory of his life was that it found its seminal vitality in the garden of Divine Revelation. No one could more confidently affirm than he, of the General Rules of Methodism, "All these we are taught of God to observe, even in His written Word." It is but right, therefore, dear brethren, that we should "stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance," by pressing upon your attention the noble work which is being done by THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

This Society is a strong ally of our Missionary forces in every field, both foreign and domestic, furnishing the pure Word of God, without note or comment, in as many languages as are spoken by the people now receiving the Gospel at our hands.

We rejoice in the fact that Methodism in Arkansas is doing more for this blessed cause than any of our sister denominations, but we cannot glory in it, for our contributions are a mere pittance compared with what they should be. There are in the State of Arkansas one hundred auxiliaries, and in the bounds of the Little Rock Conference thirty-five assisting the parent Society. There are in our Conference one hundred charges. Of these eighteen have contributed to this cause, and eighty-two have not. Now, suppose, brethren, that each charge would contribute $5, and that is not more than ought reasonably to be expected, then we would have $500. The amount contributed in our Conference during the past year was $104.30.

Now let us repair to our respective fields of labor, and give our people an opportunity to contribute something, and see how gladly they will do so when appealed to.

RESOLVED, That we will, each, take up a collection for the Bible Cause by March 1, 1894, and immediately forward the same to Rev. E. M. Pipkin, at Little Rock.
